A NEW WORLD VISION A NEW WORLD PRACTITIONER

Understand this, true health and REAL healing is much different than we've been taught. People are fed their health information by the food industry, which pays no attention to health, and are treated by the health industry, which pays no attention to food and both of these are supposedly regulated by the government, which pays very little attention to both.

Make no mistake, physicians and surgeons are the best there is for emergency care but these guys do not practice real health care... Only nature heals. Hippocrates stated, 'If you are not your own doctor, you are a fool'.

When it comes to medical health care, profit are generated by creating a society of chronic disease. You don't become the leading cause of death in North America for no reason. Taking personal responsibility for the health care of your body is regarded today as a rebellious act by those we have put into power.

The truth about real health care is found in the teachings of Hippocrates, the father of medicine, and those like him. At one time the medical system believed in the 'Hippocratic Oath' and today all that's left is the 'Hypocrite'.

When you dishonor your body you dishonor your creator. Our health care does not need a revolution, health care needs an evolution. Health and morality are very hard to find in this corporate climate. For health care to change practitioners must change.

For health care to evolve, practitioners must evolve and for this to happen we must grow consciously. Medical care is not health care. True health care is knowing how to totally care for and love oneself.

As practitioners, the results of our successes should be measured by the success of our patients. The greatest medicine of all is to teach people how not to need medicine. It has been over 100 years of misinformation and disempowering therapy, read 'Medical Mafia' in the BraveHeartNation library to get the full story.

Medical health care and natural health care professionals have placed themselves on a pedestal, making the majority of the population feel imprisoned by their body and its ability to self-heal. As a practitioner, to continually focus on treating is... mistreatment.

HIPPOCRATES

The word “doctor” means “to teach”... So the title “doctor” is actually a latin-derived word referring to anyone who is recognized to have acquired sufficient knowledge in a subject to be a teacher of the subject.

So, to prove my point, you can be a doctor of medicine, music, literature and yes, natural health. We must become our own doctor when it comes to our body, but to do this we must acquire sufficient knowledge in the art of honoring, respecting, protecting and loving ones body in alignment with nature’s laws not man’s rules.

To be a physician or surgeon does not mean you are a doctor in the true sense of the word, because as I stated earlier, doctor means teacher. I truly believe that unless the patient wants to become their own practitioner in today’s climate their health is at risk.

We have been ruled, schooled and fooled when it comes to the potential of the human body. To restore the health of our civilization, the power to heal cannot be left in the hands of the few but must be placed in the minds of the many. We cannot heal with the same mind that has created the sickness.

So this is why we must usher in a new era.. a new world.. one that empowers the unseen practitioner within each and every one of us. We were created to create not mutate.

Forget man’s rules and reclaim your God given right of Universal Law to unlimited healing.

A New World Practitioner

recognizes that every human being has been gifted with the power to heal.

A New World Practitioner

will focus on training their patient/client, not just treating them, because just treating them has led us to where we are today - the collapse of a healthy human race.

A New World Practitioner

will always first look at the condition their patient/client is in before the condition they have, otherwise, what they think and how they act dictates their reality map.

A New World Practitioner

will search for the true root cause of illness, not just focus on the symptoms of their patient/client as most practitioners have been programmed to do.

A New World Practitioner

will educate, enlighten and empower - not overpower the patient/client using fear tactics to make the sale.

A New World Practitioner

will create the Perfect Day on an emotional and physical level for themselves, their family, and their patients/clients.

Without an effective whole-body approach, patients/clients will continue to only have partial success. For a successful outcome, natural health practitioners must step outside the box of the so-called 'normal health practice' that most have been unconsciously pro-programmed for.

Practitioners must continue to evolve if they wish human health to evolve and this is what we call a New World Practitioner.

A New World Practitioner does not practice alternative health, they practice traditional health, which is not man's way but nature's way.

Whether you are already a health professional or have always wanted to become one understand, your potential is only limited by your beliefs. From doctors to nurses to the general public we all have the potential to be health professionals; do not let limiting beliefs stop you from your passion and purpose.

Our doors are open to all our brothers and sisters who want to take their power back. Come and experience our Whole Life Coach Certification and let it transform and expand your mind through total self-awareness, total self-empowerment, total self-care and total self-love.

We have created the most profound program with our Whole Life Coach Certification when it comes to rewiring the brain for permanent change combined with the most powerful bodywork therapy to date, known as 'Wolfe Non-Surgical Therapy'. My team will teach, train and guide you, step-by-step, how to make the impossible - possible.

Where other treatments and training end, ours just begins. I can't even imagine the tsunami of sickness we are facing if we do not learn to grow consciously - you cannot do better until you know better. To have things change you must become that change.

Let me ask you a question. With all the so-called medical breakthroughs and the hundreds of thousands of natural health practitioners that practice in North America, why are we one of the sickest nations on the planet and headed towards our fifth extinction?

Nine out of ten people have a chronic illness or disease today; what's wrong with this picture? One out of every two of your friends or family will experience cancer in their lifetime unless they awaken. 80% of the population is overweight or obese.

80% of the population is also pre-diabetic and 92% of the population is experiencing an autoimmune disease at this very moment. What does this say about the majority of health care whether medical or natural? It's not self-empowering, because it's not self-care, it's health care.

Unless we are teaching and training ourselves self-care, self-love, self-respect, and self-discipline then I believe we are the root cause of the problem.

If our current healthcare model is so effective then why are our friends and family suffering? Because cut, poison and burn has been made to seem to be the only option. Before man there was only nature.

We must return to our roots, which is the healing power of Mother Nature, understand science is not going to save us. Understand, the phrase 'a scientific breakthrough' does not mean it's a health breakthrough.

If you continue to turn your back on Mother Nature for manipulation you will never have the tools to thrive in this world.

Total healing is and only can be a personal take action experience if you wish to have it for a lifetime. The reason why there is no integrity in healthcare today is because the majority of people that are in health care have lost their way and their integrity without even knowing it.

Until we know that we have been asleep we can never awaken. A health practitioner can only give what he or she is, they cannot give what they are not. If we wish to see things different then we must BE different.

The quality of the therapies and treatments given will always match the quality of the beliefs of the practitioner. And the quality of the treatments accepted by the patient/client will always match the love, honor and respect they have for themselves.

Every practitioner's ability to treat is and always will be limited by his or her beliefs.

A New World Practitioner

understands that the only true growth is conscious growth, which has no limits.

A New World Practitioner

will teach their patients/clients that they are worthy of total love, total forgiveness and total healing.

A New World Practitioner

completely understands how the emotional being and the physical body affect each other for creating the perfect health for the perfect body.

A New World Practitioner

understands that we must create new pathways in our brain, otherwise new belief systems first and foremost, if permanent healing is to take place and stay in place.

A New World Practitioner

understands the only true growth is conscious growth because where the mind goes the body follows.

All our courses, certifications, and Persona Treatments & Training are built around these self-empowering philosophies. Break free from this herd man-tality and unleash your potential by rewiring... your brain.

Understand, your brain is involved in everything you do. How you think, feel, act and your habits are all controlled by your brain.

Your brain is the organ of judgment and personality but the quality of its intelligence and decisions are based on the quality of the prominent beliefs stored within this reality map known as your subconscious mind.

So where's your focus? Because where your focus goes... grows, whether it is healthy or not does not matter to the subconscious. You must become conscious of this fact if you wish to take your health back. When your brain works right, you work right.

When your brain does not work right, you won't work right either. To have success, you need a healthy brain. If you wish to change your reality then you must change parts of your personality.

Ask yourself this, 'do your beliefs support self-healing? Not healing. but self-healing.' It's a well known fact that a sick mind creates a sick body.

But understand this, you're not sick, your beliefs are because they are not yours, because why would you hurt yourself unless you were unknowingly programmed to do so. Unless you're willing to take an honest look at your personality you will never change your reality.

Do you believe deep down inside that you deserve to heal? If you have beliefs of unworthiness, all healing will only be temporary at best.

Do you realize you have 60,000 to 70,000 thoughts a day? Do you also realize that you repeat 90% of these thoughts each and every day?

Repeating thoughts is not the problem, repeating negative thoughts... is. With the majority of the population 70% of their thoughts are negative, so, if you take a look at the mental and physical state of the average man and woman you will see that this holds true.

Where do you think the word 'adulterated' comes from? Welcome to the Family Curse. Understand, if you repeat something long enough and strong enough, no matter if it's good for you or not, it will be accepted by your subconscious as the truth.

Remember, your thoughts make and shape every part of you. So what creates your thoughts? I'll tell you, it's the perception you have of yourself and the world around you.

We were created by our creator to create and this is how this process works. Understand this, the process of creation can either work for you or against you depending on if you are a conscious creator or an unconscious one.

It is important to never forget that everything visible has been created by the invisible, your thoughts are everything. You can't hold them in your hand but know this they are the blessing or your curse.

Depending on your thoughts, you will either have a negative or positive image about yourself. Remember, all creation starts with an image.

H.A.C.

First, we have an image, then a thought, which creates an emotion, which creates a frequency, which will either create a positive or negative result.

If your thoughts create a negative frequency or experience it will cause the brain to trigger the release of negative hormones and chemicals in the body called histamine, adrenaline, and cortisol.

The short form is H-A-C, otherwise HAC. Have you ever tried to 'HAC' something up that you could not digest. No one can digest fear but I guarantee you this, if you do not master fear, it will master you.

Fear is a negative entity that lives within all of us and if you continually feed it, it will feed on you until there is nothing left of you. Beliefs are living things so understand this fact, whatever you feed will only get bigger so watch out what you are feeding because it may just eat you alive. Welcome to the herd, welcome to a world.

where fear is the most experienced and promoted e-motion. Remember everything has a frequency, so watch out what you put out there.

So now you know a thought is not just a thought, it's the conductor. So what happens when you create a positive thought, frequency or experience, it triggers the brain to release positive hormones and chemicals like dopamine, oxytocin, serotonin, and endorphins, which stand for 'DOSE'.

So are you getting your daily DOSE of gentle loving chemicals and hormones that heal? To put it simply, positive emotions create the healing and negative emotions create the disease.

HISTAMINE

ADRENALINE

CORTISOL

Emotions of love can create a baby and emotions of hate can create a tumor. There are only two master emotions; love or hate. So let's review the domino effect of all your creations.

Images create thoughts... and thoughts create emotions... which creates the experience... which creates the frequency... that releases the chemicals and hormones from the chemist... which is your brain.

The chemicals and hormones released by the brain create the physical matter, so choose your thoughts wisely my friend because as I said earlier the invisible creates physical but what I should have said is everything physical has been created by the invisible.

As Einstein stated, 'E=mc<sup>2</sup>', which means energy creates mass or simply put, where the mind goes the body must follow; so, become a conscious creator.

The conscious mind is the CEO in charge of creating all things new. It only lives in the present moment where all new thoughts and only true healing can take place. Your point of power can only be accessed in the present moment.

The majority of the population are only in the present moment 2 to 5 percent each day.

Unless we become conscious of the conscious mind we will live a life of continual struggle doing everything else and being everyone else because most of us have become a prisoner of the subconscious mind.

The subconscious mind hates anything new, loves the past and fears the future. Does this sound like anyone you know? So let's talk about the protector and storage container of prominent programs, your subconscious.

Welcome to the editor, otherwise the stubborn subconscious mind, where all prominent thoughts are stored and protected, whether good or bad and new ones are rejected.

The subconscious mind hates the present moment, the future and anything new but loves to wallow in the past and play life's so-called failures over and over again like a broken record making you feel like the life you're living is as good as it gets.

Your subconscious does not care if you are creating a strategy to save your life because it believes its saving your life by stopping you from changing anything in your life.

If your wish is to change anything in your life then you must master the art of repetition along with taking massive personal action because this is your only weapon against the stubborn subconscious mind.

You will never fix a problem or heal a disease with the same mind that created it, this is law. Unless you're willing to change parts of your personality you will never create a new reality. Unless you change... nothing else changes.

Now let's talk about the autopilot - the autopilot is known as the unconscious mind, which is the 50 trillion cells that make up your body. This is where the saying, 'issues in your tissues' comes from.

Most people do not realize that repetition is the art of mastering anything and everything. Any thought repeated and experienced enough will become a prominent thought within the subconscious, which then becomes a habit.

Habits are carried out by the unconscious mind without any thought... like putting your pants on, brushing your hair, going to the bathroom, making coffee... you get the picture

Thoughts become experiences and when experiences are repeated enough they become habits, which are programs that become infused into all your cells.

This is how habits are performed by the body on an unconscious level. Habits are never a problem unless they are creating negative issues in your tissues.

How you perceive and process your emotions will decide the quality and location of your blood, your emotional state of being and the health of your tissues, joints and organs.

Remember perception is everything: Health care or self-care. Self-hate or self-love. There are only two emotions, love or hate.

Perception orchestrates chemistry and that chemistry is orchestrated by your brain. When at peace, your body will be in a parasympathetic state, a state of love and healing.

In this state, your body will be releasing a love potion of hormones and chemicals such as dopamine, oxytocin, serotonin and endorphins which stand for your daily 'DOSE' of the self-love drug Vitamin L.

When at war with oneself otherwise in a state of fear, your body will be in what is known as the sympathetic state of... fright, flight, fight and freeze, which is a habitual unconscious state of... fear, doubt and worry, which leads to all disease.

“Your Thoughts Create Everything”

— Dr. Darrell Wolfe —

In this state, your body will be continually releasing acidic hormones and chemicals such as histamine, adrenaline and cortisol. Every time that you're in a sympathetic state your body thinks you're being chased by a tiger.

This sympathetic state of being occurred 3 times a month 75 years ago. This fight, flight and fright response now occurs 17 times a day for most of the population.

This state is caused by the illusionary fear that we are force fed day in and day out by the media, medical system, corporations and yes, even religions who wish to control our bodies and own our minds.

Being in a sympathetic state of fear creates inflammation, crystallization, internal scar tissue formation, displaced calcium and mutations such as fibroids, adhesions, cysts and tumors Until you learn to become the master of your own mind... your body will be mastered and manipulated by others and you will suffer life threatening issues in your tissues throughout your whole life. Remember, where your mind goes your body must follow without question... this is the law.

Until you awaken the inner power that lies within you... you will never realize that you have been unconsciously programmed to self-destruct; welcome to the program, welcome to the herd, welcome to the harvest.

When we finally awaken to the fact that all healing begins and ends with self-healing and that it can only be turned on by total unconditional love for oneself, then and only then, will we begin to heal our world.

Love is not the answer, because if it was we would be there already. Total self-love, total self-healing, total-self forgiveness... this is the law.

Understand this, all diseases are physical blocks that begin as an energy block, otherwise, a negative emotion that could not be properly processed through the heart with love so it becomes a trapped emotional issue caught in low integrity tissue; like attracts like.

Negative thoughts become issues in the tissues. This is where the equation  $E=Mc^2$  comes into play, otherwise, energy creates mass and in the case of negative energy it creates... 'mass destruction'. Understand, the physical body is the hardware and the emotional body is the software.

Corrupted software infects the hardware. The visible is always created by the invisible, energy creates mass. The medical system even calls an abnormal growth a mass, go figure Corrupted emotional energy creates corrupted tissues, otherwise dis-ease. In my opinion, the medical system is the definition of contradiction.

On one hand, they refuse to look at the human body as an electromagnetic light energy body, meanwhile almost all their testing equipment is based on testing the electromagnetic light energy body, not the physical body... go figure

The medical system is the reason why the majority of the population only focus on less than 1% of what they truly are, that being the physical body.

The day that you finally accept this scientific fact that the majority of what you are is a light energy body first and foremost, you will see yourself free from the invisible belief system otherwise B.S. that has enslaved mankind for over a century.

This enslavement is the dysfunctional belief system that life begins, ends and revolves only around physical matter. This archaic way of thinking pulls our focus into the physical, when actually all disease, pain, and suffering is emotional first a foremost because we are energy beings, having a physical experience.

Everything visible is created by the invisible, your images, thoughts, beliefs and your perception of yourself and the world around you. You are the architect so understand, where your focus goes disease or vitality grows.

A sick mind always comes before a sick body with limiting dysfunctional beliefs being its main fuel. Every disease in the human body is first created by an emotional block before it ever becomes a physical block.

When you're diagnosed with a disease otherwise a chronic symptom, which is a physical block within the body, it always starts as a trapped negative emotional block that cannot be properly processed due to subconscious limiting beliefs.

This emotional block that has now transformed itself into a physical block will find its home in inflamed low vibrational tissues, organs, or joints creating a physical energy block that will disrupt the normal flow of blood, lymph and energy

The amount of energy you have or don't have dictates your health or the lack of it. We have all heard the saying, let go and go with the flow. Nowhere else is this statement more important than in the human body.

The flow of your blood, lymph, and your energy system, which people call “Chi, aura, energy or spirit” slows down with every physical block that you create.

Let’s compare this to a river; but in this river we have beaver dams along the way, so it’s only logical that the more dams in the river, the slower the flow and the more congested and contaminated the river becomes as the pressure builds.

So understand, that resistance in the human body causes pressure, like high blood pressure, arrhythmia, heart attack, lung conditions, organ malfunction, headaches, constipation, pain, swelling and cancer. just to mention a few.

Blocked energy creates pressure. How’s your blood pressure? Do you feel under pressure? Understand that when you have a disease you don’t have one block within your body, you have many blocks.

Very few people will ever return to vital health because practitioners just don’t get it, it’s called whole body healing not partial body healing. To focus on just the tumor, fibroid, joint problem or just a body part is only one piece of the story.

ISSUES, TISSUES, & TUMORS

Until we learn the art of honoring, respecting, protecting and forgiving ourselves first and foremost, our health will always be in jeopardy.

Take back your god given potential to love, health and happiness.

Understand this, all chronic diseases are complex diseases. An unmanaged disease can cause up to 10 to 30 physical blocks in your body.

So, to focus on one part of the body... and not the whole body... when dealing with a chronic disease, means you are going to deal with this illness or even something worse throughout your whole life.

The part of the body that we call the disease is just the weakest link in the body breaking down.

It's called body talk, a language that most people do not understand because they have never been taught.

You know the saying, 'the straw that broke the camel's back', well this time it's no camel, it's your body's weakest link.

The weakest link is not the end all-be all of healing but it can put you into the hospital, nursing home or cripple you if you do not realize that your body is talking to you and telling you to take personal action and love yourself well.

All chronic diseases are just symptoms that have been mismanaged and mistreated.

The medical system chases symptoms like a dog chases its tail. They never seem to catch the true cause; how convenient for repeat business.

They market this approach so well that most of the natural health industry practices this same protocol.

Understand this, disease names are only good for communication but they mislead and distract you from your true healing because the answer lies in the cause, not the symptoms.

Most practitioners do not understand that physical blocks like adhesions, fibroids and tumors are nutritional energy blocks that will eventually starve you.

These physical energy blocks must be gently taken apart and eliminated in a loving way or they will eventually take you apart by stealing your nutrition and undermining your immune system. An adhesion, fibroid or tumor is like a chunk of ice.

How do you get rid of a chunk of ice? Well, you raise the temperature and melt it.

The first step is using Wolfe Non-Surgical to lovingly pull the fibers apart because these physical blocks have the consistency of beef jerky.

As the fibers pull apart lymph, blood and energy flow increases long with the temperature in and around the area.

This increased flow and temperature dissolves the crystallization and transforms the fibrous scar tissue back to healthy connective tissue thus restoring the ligaments, tendons, muscles, organs and joints back to their original healthy state.

So, let's pull the fibers apart whether we are talking about arthritis, a knee replacement, hip replacement, spinal surgery, fibroid, adhesion surgical scar or tumor, it's all the same. issues in your tissues.

Let's pull them apart gently and lovingly, raise the temperature, raise the vibration and heal the body.

Remember, with every physical block created you will suffer with more pain because you are blocking and disrupting the natural flow of the visible and the invisible.

THESE ENERGY BLOCKS ARE THE DISEASE.

An example of this is crystallization, calcification, internal scar tissue, blood clots, cysts, pimples, adhesions, fibroids, tumors and everything else that creates discomfort within the human body.

Never forget, pain is your body's GPS; it's your guardian, it's your friend to the end, so respect it and listen to it.

In today's society pain is a gift or a punishment, it all depends on your Belief Systems. Do you want to be a physical victim or an awakened spirit?

Pain is the most accurate diagnosis. Pain is the protector for those who are conscious. Pain is an alert system to get your attention and focus. Where your focus goes energy flows.

Pain is the greatest healer when you learn to master it through self-awareness, self-love and self-care.

The more peaceful the heart and mind are, the greater the healing. We must learn to mind our own business and stay mindful of our breath.

Just know this, you can't have a healing crisis unless you have issues in your tissues. The pain you experience is the pain you must release on an emotional and physical level.

God created the vehicle called your body but only you hold the key to turn on self-healing and this key is called self-care.

All healthcare systems that do not empower self-healing have been created to create the illusion of healing; this is the 'disease of business' or should I say, 'the business of disease'. When you put your faith in mankind the body takes the backseat or may even become obsolete. Self-healing is the only way, it's nature's way.

We will continue to create emotional blocks within our body until we understand that the true definition of disease is an unconscious subconscious dislike for one's self programmed into us through societies man made systems.

The more toxins and negative emotions that we take in, the more fat cells, internal scar tissue, adhesions, fibroids and tumors our bodies must produce.

What people do not realize is that scar tissue stores more toxins than fat, but tumors store even more toxins than scar tissue.

You will continually have to detox the visible, otherwise the physical, until you learn the art of detoxing the invisible, otherwise, the dysfunctional beliefs that block your emotional potential.

You can remove the tumor but did you remove the belief that gave it life in the first place? We must learn to master the three T's - this being toxins, thoughts and traumas.

That brings us to stress, the invisible injury that causes almost all dis-ease we suffer from today.

Can you believe that even the heart association does not even recognize stress as a factor when it comes to heart health.

Again, we see Big Pharma playing the puppet master. Look... whether we're talking about the heart or any other part of the body, stress creates more inflammation and internal scar tissue formation in the body than any diet.

The medical system and even the natural health system do not recognize scar tissue until it becomes an adhesion, fibroid or tumor.

Both of these systems do not have what I would call a successful plan of action. Scar tissue is the issue when it comes to your physical well-being.

If you do not untie these invisible bonds that bind you on an emotional, physical and energetic level, your human potential will remain blocked on all levels

When it comes to issues in the tissues you now have a choice, drugs, surgery or Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy.

Without gentle loving destruction of these obstructions or blockages you won't have healthy construction, or in other words, a true healing. Whether we're talking about performing a Wolfe Non-Surgical heart release, pelvic clearance, breast lift, hip, knee or spinal restoration, these physical blocks must be removed so that the proper blood, lymph and energy flow returns to the area of concern so that the tissues, joints and organs are restored back to their original state of vitality.

If you remove these physical blockages you increase circulation.

If you increase circulation, you increase energy, which then increases temperature, which turns on your built-in mechanism of self-healing.

For healing to take place we must transform the scar tissue back into connective tissue, melt the crystallization and return the displaced calcium to where it belongs... your bones.

One of the biggest hurdles for practitioners, still to this day, is finding a successful method to return the displaced calcium that is in the tissues, organs and joints back into the bones where it came from.

We are now able to restore the displaced calcium back to the bones with Calcium Ion Therapy. one of the biggest nutritional breakthroughs of the last century.

This treatment has the ability to return bones back to their healthy state no matter what the age the patient/client is.

Go to the BraveHeartNation Library at BHNlibrary.com and click on the: Calcium Ion Therapy Guide to find out more.

Never forget the main reason calcium gets pulled from your bones is to keep your body PH alkaline.

Balanced blood calcium is critical. Your body will always give up bone calcium to protect your life.

We know that inflammation, internal scar tissue formation, and displaced calcium are the major causes of joint problems, premature aging, autoimmune diseases, physical limitation and yes, even cancer.

No matter what the injury, surgery, disease or chronic condition you may experience with- in your body, we must always go in and clean up the excess build-up of internal scar tissue, crystallization and displaced calcium that occurs during the body's natural healing process.

What I'm saying is, due to this overcompensation during the healing process we must go in with Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy and lovingly remove the physical blocks that naturally occur with every accident, injury, disease, condition, disorder or trauma.

To completely restore the joints and tissues we must remove the invisible blocks that bind us. What I just shared with you is the master key to staying vibrantly healthy throughout your whole life.

Yes, we get older but you don't have to feel old like the majority have been taught.

Just know this, your body will always overcompensate with laying down excess scar tissue, crystallization and calcium to protect any weakened, diseased, injured or highly acidic area and it will do this even more so, when it comes to surgery.

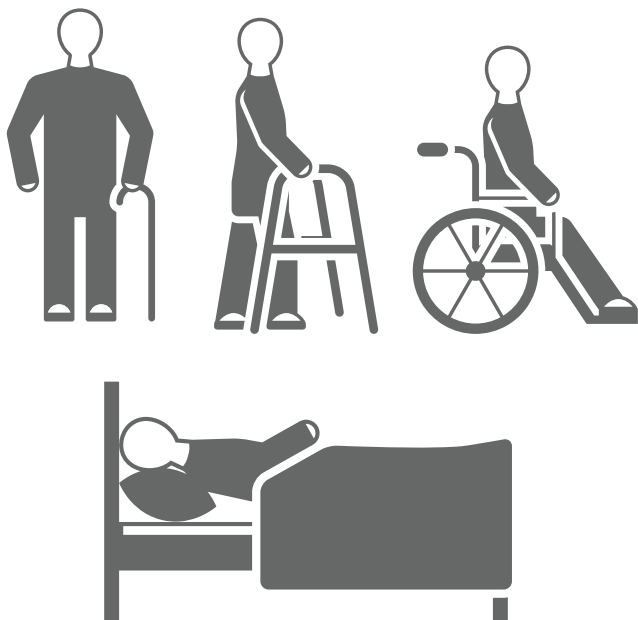

Nothing creates more scar tissue problems in the body than surgery, so beware of the invisible bonds that will eventually strangle your tissues, muscles, joints and organs.

Understand there is a major problem in health-care today with practitioners not understanding the body's natural healing process of overcompensating with scar tissue and displaced calcium to protect and support the healing process of an injury, disease or damaged tissue.

Where the problem lies, is body workers, therapists, nurses and even doctors think that after the injury is healed, their job is done.

So now, because of the lack of understanding that most health professionals have on this topic of the body overcompensating when healing, the majority of the population is left with physical blocks within their joints, tissues and organs that were supposedly healed but later in life will haunt them and eventually even cripple them as we see with the increase of canes, walkers, wheelchairs and nursing homes.

These physical blocks created by the natural healing process of the body, if not removed, will create stiffness, pain, infection, stagnation, inflammation, internal scar tissue, fibroid and even tumors, which we continually see in our practice.

You can't do better for your patient/client until you know better.

Just know this, we have been programmed to believe that all of this is a normal part of aging. and this my friend is why grandpa's, 'stiff as a board' and grandmas, 'in a wheelchair' and nobody gives this a second thought. not even healthcare workers.

Now there's a scary thought.

If these physical blocks are not removed and the tissues are not restored back to their original healthy state then blood, lymph, and energy flow will continue to be compromised, along with the quality of life.

During the body's natural healing process. and even after the injury, disease or surgery has supposedly healed, practitioners must go in with Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy to remove the buildup of scar tissue, crystallization and displaced calcium or the body will never truly be healed and there will be complications in the future.

This one amazing step of utilizing Wolfe Non-Surgical is revolutionizing the way we look at bodywork and how it's the key to healing.

How could something so obvious go unnoticed for so long? I will tell you why, it's called unconscious programming.

You would think that practitioners would realize that if their patient/client is coming back with the same issue or needing surgery in the same area then the cause has never been dealt with properly, which is and always will be the issues within their tissues, not their bones.

I promise, within your first treatment of Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy, your belief will be restored about the amazing healing powers of your body.

Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy releases and awakens the supposedly dead nerves that are being strangled, irritated and in- flamed by the internal scar tissue and displaced calcium within your joints, muscles and spine.

The medical system along with natural health care are of the opinion that the nerves that are hard to see on x-ray are dying or dead already.

This is false, the fact is, they calcify and get all wrapped up and choked off with scar tissue, which cuts off the nerve transmission, otherwise the energy flow.

This same mistake is made by doctors who say there's no cartilage left in the knee or the hip and that it's bone on bone. Well, I can tell you this. the cartilage and tissue is still there, but it's cemented to the bone, but only until we go in with Wolfe Non-Surgical to restore the joint and its tissue.

Remove the calcification and restore the scar tissue back to its original state of healthy connective tissue and you will automatically restore the flow and the life force to the so called dead nerves and worn out joints.

Even though it is a normal occurrence to see people today limping, furnishing a cane, walker, wheelchair or scooter, understand this, it is a normal occurrence for us to see our patients/clients wake up to the fact that after just one Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue treatment along with following the Perfect Day protocol they finally realize that their body can and will totally heal itself - no one has to remain a victim, you now have a choice for maybe the first time in your life.

True health has always been a joint effort between you and your body, take massive personal action, stop attacking it with drugs and surgery and you will heal. All therapies have their place, but unless you open up and transform the internal scar tissue back to healthy connective tissue, eliminate the crystallization and replace the displaced calcium back to the bones then the therapy is only temporary at best.

Where other therapies fail, Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy succeeds.

Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy is the antidote to the needless surgery and the implant obsessed approach that the world has now bought into.

Why make surgery your first choice? Why not give your body a chance to heal naturally. God does not create junk man does?

We offer all our patients a money-back guarantee that their first treatment will outweigh all other treatments and therapies that they have received up until this point.

Your body has not forgotten how to heal; your mind has.

Let's now talk about the holy grail of healing, which is your abdomen and pelvis.

Let's talk about a healthy person, and I do mean a healthy person, not today's definition of a healthy person. You will find in a truly healthy person that the surfaces of the abdominal and the pelvic organs are slippery and move easily past one another as this person goes about their daily activities pain-free and with energy.

For most people, they have quite a different day in store for them; because of the inflammatory lifestyle that the majority live, adhesions, which are bands of scar tissue, will form anywhere and everywhere in the abdominal and pelvic area restricting and tying this person up in knots.

For all of you who are going for surgery just know this, surgery causes more adhesions than anything else... but abdominal and pelvic surgeries create more adhesions than any other surgery.

For before and after surgery care, please consider reading and watching Reverse the Irreversible at BHNlibrary.com - make surgery your last option, choose life first.

Total elimination of the inflammation and adhesions through a non-inflammatory lifestyle such as the Perfect Day Diet, Advanced Water Fasting and Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy is the most effective way to reverse and prevent the continual formation of adhesions and to prevent further surgery.

An adhesion is an internal scar that forms in the body after any and all surgeries. Scar tissue adhesions cause tissues and organs to stick together like glue.

Understand that external and internal scar tissue and adhesions do not stretch; they pull, they tear easily, they grow roots and they attach themselves eventually choking off your organs, tissues, and joints.

Adhesions cause chronic constant pain, fibroids, cancer, endometriosis, and infertility. Infertility is becoming an epidemic and this is why we have created a 7-day training called, 'The Perfect Pain Free Pregnancy Personal Treatment and Training; which by the way is one of our most popular trainings for couples wishing to become pregnant or already are.

Let's now talk about a scar tissue issue that 20% of North American women are afflicted with.

This condition is known as Endometriosis. Endometriosis is a medical condition that occurs when the lining of the uterus, called the endometrium, grows in other places, such as the fallopian tubes, ovaries or along the pelvis.

When that lining breaks down, like the regular lining in the uterus that produces the menstruation, it has nowhere to go. To this day the medical system is still claiming ignorance that they have no idea what causes endometriosis.

But my hope is that you are beginning to understand that the top four causes of endometriosis are constipation, leaky gut, surgery and inflammation

This is a scar tissue issue created by misinformation about inflammation. So, what do you think are the three top surgeries for North American women?

The number one surgery performed in North America is the Cesarean Section; there are over 1.3 million C-sections performed every year.

And did you also know, some women have had three or four c-sections in a row.

Do you realize the massive amount of internal scar tissue this creates? Well, it's debilitating and can even become life threatening.

The second most prominent surgery performed is the Hysterectomy, otherwise the removal of a woman's womb, which is her ovaries and uterus.

This is also called the pelvic clearance and in most cases never needs to happen when a woman takes massive personal action by reclaiming her beautiful body and implementing the Perfect Pelvic Protocol.

The third most prominent surgery performed on a woman is a Myomectomy, or the removal of a benign fibroid or scar tissue mass from her uterus.

This surgery is performed due to pain, bleeding and/or infertility. The main cause of all three of these surgeries is.. we are a constipation, inflammation nation that is continually being fed mis-information.

These three surgeries make up most of the surgeries that women are forced to endure, due mainly to a broken system where women are sold off by the pound.

Over 33 million women in North America suffer from chronic pelvic pain.

Why have women accepted this nagging and even excruciating pain as a normal way of life... I'll tell you why.. programming. We are all programmed to serve the needs of corporate America.

Stabbing pain in your pelvis is not normal, prolapse, urine leakage is not normal, painful love making is not normal.

Doctors have been programmed for pain, welcome to healthcare. Pain killers, muscle relaxants, feeling helpless and depressed have become a way of life for almost half of the female population.

Understand you are not alone, 50% of all women have pelvic organ prolapse. One out of three women suffer from sexual pain. The truth is 49% of all women leak urine.

Just because this is becoming normal with most women does not make it natural. Do not accept this, you're not broken, you have been betrayed by a healthcare system that does not work for women.

No matter how desperate you feel, just know that we have turned thousands of women around just like you and worse. Do not give up on you.

You do not need surgery, you do not need pills, you do not need to be stitched or have botox injected into your vaginal wall.. just know, you've been set up; you're not broken, the system is.

You can take back total control of your abdominal pelvic region when you welcome our Perfect Pelvic Healing Protocol into your life, you can finally throw away you 'panty liners' and 'Depends' forever.

Never feel out of balance again... we can help you take your power back and keep it for a lifetime. Unleash your feminine power. Within weeks you will feel and be whole again. End the confusion that your doctor suffers from

When you put yourself first and foremost by honoring, respecting and protecting your body you will love yourself well. Awaken and heal your pelvis and get back to life's simple pleasures.

The takeaway message that we must never ever forget is that all problems within the body all stem from an inflammation scar tissue issue situation, right from the tip of your nose to the end of your toes.

It is critical that the internal scar tissue created from inflammation, infection, accidents, injuries, sports injuries and chronically stiff joints be cleaned up and eliminated as the healing takes place.

And with surgeries the excess scar tissue must be eliminated within 8 to 12 weeks post-surgery. It's imperative to take personal action if you wish to set yourself free from these life threatening invisible bonds that bind you and blind you from the life you could have.

So please understand that these three top surgeries being C-sections, hysterectomy and myomectomy are preventable in most cases.

These three surgeries create life-threatening adhesions in 93% of the women who get them. Understand, every woman who has ever had surgery on her abdomen or pelvis suffers from multiple adhesions

This is why the Perfect Day protocol and Wolfe Non-Surgical is a must or these adhesions will continue to grow and create physical blocks that will slow down and eventually cut off circulation, digestion and elimination of waste, which will lead to more inflammation, scar tissue formation, displaced calcium and even cellular mutation.

When bands of internal scar tissue known as adhesions form in the abdomen they will cause the abdominal organs to stick to each other or to your abdominal wall. These adhesions will even connect the loops of the small and large intestines to each other.

They will also attach the intestines to the inner lining of the abdominal wall, peritoneal lining or with other organs within the abdominal cavity such as the liver, gallbladder, uterus, fallopian tubes, ovaries and urinary bladder.

Adhesions in the abdomen and pelvis always become a web of destruction for all tissues, muscles and organs in this area of the body.

Abdominal pain and other symptoms of intestinal obstruction are by far the most common symptoms of adhesions. Laparoscopic Lysis is the medical system's way of dealing with abdominal adhesions but guess what?

This surgery creates even more adhesions, which leads to even more abdominal surgeries.

The continual growth of these adhesions can cause moderate to severe bowel obstructions by constricting, twisting or pulling your intestines out of place. These adhesions can partially or completely block food or stool from successfully moving through the intestines.

I can tell you first hand, that over the last fort years of being in practice that once your bowel movements and urination become constricted because of scar tissue and/or adhesions the quality of your life will also be cut off.

For those that are suffering with a chronic illness this scar tissue issue is the tipping point of disaster.

If you were to ask the tens of thousands of women who have had cesareans, tummy tucks or the bowel cancer patients who now wished they understood the downside of surgical adhesions and what the upside of gentle daily cleansing, creating the Perfect Day and Wolfe Non-Surgical is, what do think their answer would be today if they were granted full disclosure. and if they were given options?

You can't tell me that we have freedom of choice in this country when the Medical System is the leading cause of death in North America. Welcome to the herd. welcome to the harvest.

Adhesions are one of the main reasons why we see bowel cancer rising at such an alarming rate in the female population.

Your best line of defense is the Perfect Day Diet, gentle daily cleansing, Advanced Water Fasting, the Ultimate Coffee En - ma, Wolfe Non-Surgical abdominal lift and pelvic restoration to prevent and eliminate the inflammation and the internal scar tissue formation.

For more information on scar tissue formation and how to prevent it go to docofdetoxlibrary.com and watch, read or listen to: Cancer Is An Inflammation Scar Tissue Issue and I am Woman.

I have seen in so many patients/clients that when partial or complete obstruction occurs in their bowels, their health declines so fast in such a short period of time.

Did you know you can measure a person's health by their bowel movements and urination? The typical symptoms felt from obstruction are abdominal discomfort around the belly button or the umbilicus.

It begins with a cramp, then spastic contractions and is followed by distension of the abdomen.

These symptoms are worsened by eating and with prolonged obstruction, nausea and vomiting may occur.

One of the most powerful but simple techniques you can do to heal the gut is Belly Button Therapy; check it out at the Doc of Detox and make sure you watch: The Holy Grail of Healing on YouTube for the most powerful take action abdominal and pelvic strategies.

The most common cause of abdominal adhesions is abdominal surgery, other causes are abdominal infections such as peritonitis, inflammatory conditions such as appendicitis, colitis, leaky gut, Crohn's, IBS, SIBO, abdominal trauma, radiation, and of course constipation.

The main cause of the 3rd most prominent surgery performed on North American women is a myomectomy, which is caused by the conditions I have just mentioned.

A myomectomy is the removal of adhesions or a benign fibroid or scar tissue from the uterus. This surgery occurs due to pain, bleeding or infertility, which are all chronic health problems that are caused by a healthcare system that does not work for women, it works for the surgeons, Big Pharma and the implant industry.

The main cause of infertility is caused by adhesions involving the fallopian tubes that result in kinking and obstruction of the tubes, thereby preventing the eggs that are released from the ovaries from reaching the uterus.

How could it be, that the main cause for these adhesions, being a dysfunctional large intestine, is so overlooked even though it sticks out like a sore thumb in most people.

I will tell you why... we have been programmed to disrespect the body but mainly the holy grail of immunity, your large intestine. Just know that infertility is reversible, but to do this it is not a medical breakthrough you need, it is creating the Perfect Day and removing the inflammation and scar tissue that has created the physical block of infertility.

Please check out the Personal Treatment & Training guide in the BraveHeartNation Library.

Additionally, there are the adhesions and internal scar tissue created by implants such as stents, mesh, rods, pins, plates, screws and any other device they can invent.

Whether it's the hip, knee, spine, breast or anywhere else in the body these implants are foreign invaders that are continually giving off toxins, which compromises your immune system 24/7.

All implants and surgeries create massive internal scar tissue and adhesions to wall off and protect the body against the implant.

The problem is, this overcompensation of internal scar tissue formation, crystallization and calcification will continue to grow and create a physical block that will actually turn on you and create a domino effect of disease and more surgery.

These blockages, formed by adhesions, attract and store heavy metals, chemicals, toxins and pathogens because this is a low vibrational tissue prone to disease and eventually cancer, because like attracts like.

For those women with breast implants check out, 'Breast Implant illness and Healing by Nicole'.

This is a women's support group on Facebook. For all the women out there just know this, there has been a major increase in lymphomas due to breast implants and adhesions caused by surgery.

Lymphoma is cancer that begins in the infection-fighting cells of the immune system, called lymphocytes.

These cells are in the lymph nodes, spleen, thymus, bone marrow, and other parts of the body.

There are two types of lymphoma; Non-Hodgkin lymphoma is what most people get. To be successful in healthcare we must always search for the root cause of every disease; not focus on the symptoms found downstream, this is the madness found in mainstream healthcare today that feeds Big Pharma, Surgery and the Implant Industry.

Understand, any foreign object put into the body will turn on an autoimmune response, otherwise an autoimmune disease, that can range from low-grade inflammation to stage four cancer.

Understand that when it comes to breast implants or any other implant your doctor can hide the scar, but the adhesion is the invisible silent threat that must be dealt with, with Wolfe Non-Surgical, or it will eventually deal with you.

The more you research you will understand that cancer gets its foothold in and around scars and adhesions due to a choking off of blood, lymph and cellular circulation to this area.

You will find in the case of fibroids, adhesion or tumor removal, there is a large recurring incidence of cancer because of the scar tissue formation created from the surgery. One should always take action to remove these adhesions in a loving and non-invasive way.

Go to BraveHeartNation.com and check out Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy and our Personal Treatment & Training. Always ask your doctor what the risks and complications are before you opt in for any surgery but especially for abdominal, pelvic or breast surgery.

How long will it take to heal? What are the signs and symptoms of adhesions forming after surgery? Also ask your doctor what he can do about adhesions, which in most cases is absolutely nothing.

History has taught us that we must do our own research and homework, do not trust the professionals; trust in god, trust in yourself, trust in nature. You must take massive personal action to respect, protect and honor your body because in healthcare today your life depends on it.

And for God's sake get a second opinion. Love your body and you will love your life. How you master your thoughts will be how you live your life... survivor or thriver... victim or hero. reaction or take action.

Understand this, cancer is the end stage of low-level love for oneself and constant inflammation; this is why 1 out of every 2 people will experience cancer in their lifetime, as long as they continue to follow the herd.

Break free from becoming a statistic, but to do this you must change parts of your personality if you wish for a new reality. Unconscious living is a killer.

Western society does not have true answers for healing. Telling your body to shut up and shut down makes for a dysfunctional relationship.

Who wants their pain managed? I want to master mine because pain is not the enemy, your dysfunctional beliefs are.

The greatest prison ever created is when you become stuck in a world of pain. Just remember, whatever you push... pushes back and whatever you fight... attacks

Honor the spirit or dishonor the body, it's your choice... self-love or self-hate. Everything has a frequency; we must rise on all levels to heal.

Let's be clear about this, your government will never assist non-government regulated health; they are owned and managed by the corporate world. Insanity is believing that the medical system is the definition of healthcare.

What you think matters; you can't hold a thought in your hand but it's still the most powerful thing in this world. We must return to the old ways, not the medical way, not the alternative way, but the traditional way.

The old ways, the traditional ways are the only way because they are true, tested and proven. You must learn to honor and feed the greatest part of you. your spirit, if you wish to heal.

Remember, with every physical block you create you will suffer with more pain because you are blocking and disrupting the natural flow of the visible and the invisible.

Energy blocks create physical blocks, which become the disease. An example of this is crystallization, calcification, internal scar tissue blood clots, cysts, pimples, adhesions, fibroids tumors and everything else that creates discomfort within the human body, so watch out what you bury deep down inside.

Never forget, pain is your body's GPS; it's your guardian, it's your friend to the end, so respect it and listen to it.

In today's society pain is a gift that guides you or a punishment that enslaves you, it all depends on your Belief Systems. Do you want to remain a physical victim or become an awakened spirit?

Pain is the most accurate diagnosis on this planet. Pain is the protector for those who are conscious.

Pain is a built in alert system to get your attention that you are unknowingly mismanaging your body. Pain is the greatest healer when you learn to master it through self-love and self-care.

Where your focus goes, energy flows The more peaceful the heart and mind, the greater the healing. We must learn to mind our own business and stay mindful of our breath because our true power is only found in the present moment.

The pain you experience is the pain you must release on an emotional and physical level.

You can't have a healing crisis unless you have issues in your tissues. God created the vehicle called your body but only you hold the key to turn on self-healing and this key is called self-care through total self-love.

SURGERY, IMPLANTS & ROBOTS

There's no denying that the implant industry has sold us on the convenience and efficiency of implant

The surgical industry has sold us on its life saving techniques to cut it out instead of healing it.

This is not the problem because these two industries are great for when you need emergency care but when the belief in emergency care becomes part of your daily care your life becomes a 911 emergency.

Let me ask you a question. Does the implant and surgical industry still have a conscience? Does the implant and surgical industry have a heart?

Or are we dealing with a corporation with a ferocious appetite that puts profit before people to feed their bottom line?

Understand, it's critical you go in with both eyes wide open when it comes to these two industries.

There is a big problem in healthcare today and that problem is that most people believe that a medical technological breakthrough is a health breakthrough. we could be no further from the truth. I will always opt for what God has created not what is man-made.

Why have we forgotten that our body can heal? I'll tell you why... programming. Welcome to the program. You need to get this, your health depends on it, you are a human being. not their experiment.

Artificial hips, heart valves, mesh, stents and implant are all modern medicine miracles but what happens when they don't work.

By unleashing these so called medical innovations we are creating more inflammation, internal scar tissue formation and cellular mutation within our bodies than we have ever created before.

Let's be clear about this, your government will never assist non-government regulated health; they are owned and managed by the corporate world. Insanity is believing that the medical system is the definition of healthcare

A new technology does not mean innovation. And with all this new technology we have turned our backs on mother nature, which means most of us have signed up to live a life of pain and suffering

According to a new study by iData Research, approximately 340,000 Coronary Artery Bypass Grafting surgeries are performed in the United States each year and this number is growing at an alarming rate.

And what about the 1.8 million cardiovascular stents implanted per year in the United States.

The truly sad part is the majority of these surgeries can be prevented and reversed through diet and lifestyle changes.

Americans undergo an average of 9.2 surgical procedures per lifetime. Do not kid yourself, surgery is big business now that we have unconsciously turned our backs on nature and forgot that the body is the greatest healer.

Here's something most do not know, the medical device industry has much more power over the government than even Big Pharma.

But understand this, Big Pharma is one of the main reasons why people believe they need surgery.

The problem is pharmaceutical drugs short circuit pain, inflammation and swelling, which is part of the body's natural healing process.

When you make pain the enemy you go to war with your body, it's as simple as that.

Understand when you hijack the body's natural healing process for the promise of instant relief you short circuit the brain so even though you no longer feel the pain, the inflammation goes unchecked like a house on fire

This emotional numbing out that we are all addicted to today because we have not mastered our emotions, translates into a life-threatening habit called instant gratification, which brings with it, even more damage to your body's tissues, joints and organs.

But what people do not understand, when they take these numbing drugs is the inflammation still rages on, unsupervised, silently destroying your body's tissues, joints, organs and its precious immune system.

The body's alarm system of pain and inflammation has been cut off from the brain from these wonder drugs.

So now this unsupervised inflammation in your body has free access to burn up the tissues, joints and organs, which leads to further internal scar tissue, crystallization, displaced calcium and cellular mutation that Big Pharma has always known is the end result of their so-called miracle cures.

Big Pharma teaches their physicians and surgeons that for every 10 years a person is alive another drug is added to their prescription care. so for example, a 10 year old would be taking 1 drug and a 60 year old would be taking 6 different drugs. To prove my point, 92% of the North American population is suffering from one or more autoimmune diseases and to make matters worse they are unaware that they are being prepared and processed for surgery and the world of robotics.

Most people do not stand a chance in this arena of health deception.

They have no clue that the inflammation caused by this so called normal lifestyle that the majority unconsciously live their life by - day in and day out - is the number one root cause of the internal scar tissue that is constantly growing inside their joints, muscles, tendons, ligaments and organs that will eventually lead them to surgery.

This internal scar tissue issue is the main cause of premature aging, disease, cancer and yes, the crippling life that most of us have been programmed to accept. Just take a look around you at all the people with surgical implants, canes, walkers, wheelchairs, depends diapers and unnecessary emergency trips to the hospital.

How does it feel to live in crisis knowing life is only going to get worse and you're only healthy until your next check-up?

How does it feel to be part of the herd? But it does not end here, all this unchecked inflammation is causing unprecedented amounts of calcium to be pulled from your bones and dumped into your body tissues, organs and joints.

This will lead to fractures, osteopenia, osteoarthritis, osteoporosis, calcium deposits in the breasts, kidneys, gallbladder and other tissues, organs and joints within the body.

If you do not understand and respect the law of nature and how your body works and that self-care is the only true health-care then you may find that surgery might become you only option.

Let's talk about what happens when you do not understand the law of nature and how your body works.

Many women will experience their abdomen or pelvic area falling down and out at some point in their lifetime.

For men, it also occurs but not as often or as bad because they do not give birth so they do not have as many alarm systems as the female population.

We are finding that when it comes to prolapse and hernias doctors are promoting the use of mesh instead of using suture.

They used to suture but now people are forced to leave their province or state to get this procedure done because the medical device industry is trying to make mesh the only option. Mesh costs $25 to produce and sells for $2,000 per surgery.

All these mesh devices were cleared through the 5K pathway. What does this mean? Well it means that the FDA did not require human studies on any of the mesh devices.

How crazy is that? But the analysis by the FDA found that the most common adverse effect for surgical repair of hernias with mesh are pain, infection, hernia recurrence, scar-like tissue that sticks other tissues together, which chokes off proper circulation Mesh can also cause blockages in the large or small intestine and uncontrollable bleeding.

The primary function of surgical mesh is to support prolapsed organs from falling down and out due to lack of tone.

It is most commonly used in hernia surgery within the abdomen when an organ protrudes through the abdominal muscles.

Once you surgically put mesh in, it causes scar tissue that welds it into place, the mesh will then begin to shrink and push itself up against the tissues that it grows into.

The mesh creates a stiff beef jerky like scar tissue, which creates a hard inflexible object that becomes a physical block choking off the microcirculation to all surrounding tissues and organs in the area.

This physical block of mesh and scar tissue will eventually cause an inflammation crisis in all your pelvic organs, hips and vagina.

All your pelvic organs must continually move smoothly for maximum circulation to be consistent, but for most, their organs and tissues have become frozen cemented structures of scar tissue, crystallization and displaced calcium, which results in minimal blood and lymph flow and inevitably tissue disintegration in the surrounding areas.

This mass of mesh, scar tissue, crystallization and displaced calcium will cause a cascade of problems from the tip of your toes to the tip of your nose.

Most people that get mesh will never realize that the mesh was responsible for the future diseases in other parts of their body. Please take this to heart, once mesh has been surgically placed in you, you cannot remove it.

Once this mesh is installed into you, it will be a nightmare to get it out. It will be like trying to remove rebar from concrete.

There are four states currently suing Johnson & Johnson for concealing the dangers of vaginal mesh.

Vaginal mesh has and can destroy not just your sex life but your whole life, it's a foreign object implanted into the holy grail of the human body, otherwise known as your abdominal pelvic region.

Why would anyone put a foreign object in the most sensitive area for a man or a woman and not expect all 'cell' to break loose?

In the past decade mesh lawsuits have cost Johnson & Johnson 300 million dollars but during that time their total revenue exceeded $683 billion.

Therefore, they have no problem playing the pain game; lawsuits are worth the risk, because there is no risk, it's just a part of doing business. And then we have the hip manufacturers that are forced to recall hip replacements containing cobalt because these devices cause nearby tissues to disintegrate.

But understand this, all hip implants have complications no matter what they are made from.

The medical device industry continues to recommend cobalt even though they understand the human cost.

Health and human beings have taken a back seat with the medical device industry because this disregard of human life increases their bottom line; they measure the cost of life by their profits

So where is the FDA, the supposed watchdog of safety? There are currently 10 million people that have hips, knee and shoulder replacements with cobalt.

The take home message today is that systemic cobalt poisoning from a hip replacement or any other joint is a common problem.

You can make a strong argument that everyone would be better off if we stopped innovating total hip replacement.

But understand this, every type of implant will have complications, end of story. If you don't take care of your body then who will?

You can no longer rely on the medical device industry or your government to do what's in the best interest of human health.

The mission of the robotic medical industry is to get a robotic surgical device into every human being.

You will regret becoming an implantee and most implantees will never realize that the disease they have gotten from the implant was actually caused by the implant.

This is a scary time to put your health or your life in the hands of a corporation's care because there is no longer anyone guarding the hen house. Whether you wish to believe this or not implants are foreign to the human body.

These implants will invade the body causing an autoimmune response, which will unleash an attack on the implant and all the surrounding tissues leading to tissue disintegration.

If you have already been given an implant it's not the end of the world, but you will have to take massive personal action to protect your immune system and to remove the excess scar tissue because this implant is now a ticking time bomb.

In a written response from Johnson & Johnson they said "your assertion that our vaginal mesh and hip products have had a negative impact on the health of patients is untrue." By the way Johnson & Johnson is currently being sued by 65 thousand mesh and hip replacement patients.

Now let's talk about a supposed medical technological breakthrough robotic device called the da Vinci® Surgical System, which allows surgeons to operate 7 feet away from their patient.

By the way, the da Vinci® robot made 4 billion dollars in surgeries last year. They call it 'intuitive surgery'; I call it 'the blind leading the blind'.

People are getting surgery when they don't even need it and this is a very slippery slope we're on, as you will soon learn.

The story of how the robot came into health care is the story of what's wrong with medicine in America today.

Massive adoption of a new technology with little evaluation of the outcomes, where is the FDA again in this horror story.

The da Vinci® Surgical System is a surgery that has terrible complications because it's a robot. The manufacturers are now saying that most doctors only need to have two or three surgeries to perfect it, but surgeons are stating that it takes 200 to 300 surgeries before they are even comfortable with the da Vinci® surgical robot.

When they brought the da Vinci® Surgical System robot to the FDA they said they would give 9 weeks of training, which they did not do and the FDA never enforced it.

They only gave surgeons a half a day of training to allow a robot to decide your fate.

So now let's talk about the women who have had hysterectomies with the da Vinci® robot.

Remember earlier when I was mentioning things falling down and out in the abdomen, pelvis and vagina? Well hang on tight... real tight.

Some women have had up to 3 feet of their intestines fall out of their vagina after getting a hysterectomy with the da Vinci® robot.

Vaginal cuff surgery complications occur 3 to 9 times more often with the da Vinci® Surgical System robot.

Many women who have had hysterectomies with the da Vinci® robot have been unable to ever have penetration again because of the destruction that this device left behind in their vagina.

I can tell you that we have had many women come to us with this very problem and they no longer have to live with it once they embrace the Perfect Day Protocol and Wolfe Non-Surgical Deep Tissue Therapy.

But understand this, you must do your own research, trust no one, it's your body.

Many women have almost died because of this robotic procedure. This robot is not a human being, it has no heart, it has no feelings, it does not care... sounds like a corporation to me.

Intuitive surgery continues to advise surgeons to determine for themselves if they're ready to perform surgery with the da Vinci® Surgical System robot.

Intuitive my foot! This is like giving someone a loaded gun and they don't know how to use it.

I'm reaching out to every woman who is considering a hysterectomy or is suffering from ovarian cysts, bladder infections, fertility issues, fibroids, endometriosis, continual pain and every man that has prostate problems or bladder problems to rethink their options.

You do not have to live with these painful pelvic conditions, understand that you can take your life back, it's your God given right, your body knows how to heal given the right conditions.

Over 33 million women in North America suffer from chronic pelvic pain.

Why have women accepted this nagging and even excruciating pain as a normal way of life... I'll tell you why.. programming.

We are all programmed to serve the needs of corporate America. Stabbing pain in your pelvis is not normal, pelvic prolapse, urine leakage is not normal, painful love making is not normal.

Doctors have been programmed for pain, welcome to healthcare.

Pain killers, muscle relaxants, feeling helpless and depressed have become a way of life for almost half of the female population.

Understand you are not alone, 50% of all women have pelvic organ prolapse.

One out of three women suffer from sexual pain. The truth is 49% of all women leak urine. Just because this is becoming normal with most women does not make it natural.

Do not accept this, you're not broken, you have been betrayed by a healthcare system that does not work for women.

No matter how desperate you feel, just know that we have turned thousands of women around just like you and worse. Do not give up on you.

You do not need surgery, you do not need pills, you do not need to be stitched or have botox injected into your vaginal wall.. just know, you've been set up; you're not broken, the system is.

You can take back total control of your abdominal pelvic region when you welcome our Perfect Pelvic Healing Protocol into your life, you can finally throw away your 'panty liners' and 'Depends' forever.

Never feel out of balance again we can help you take your power back and keep it for a lifetime. Unleash your feminine power.

Within weeks you will feel and be whole again. End the confusion that your doctor suffer from.

When you put yourself first and foremost by honoring, respecting and protecting your body you will love yourself well. Awaken and heal your pelvis and get back to life's pleasures.

Unleash your healer from within.

Do not make going under the knife your first option; give life a chance, give self-love, give self-care a chance and take massive personal action because this is an inflammation, scar tissue situation where displaced calcium and crystallization have come together to create a physical block, that only you can heal from.

We have had thousands of patients/clients, just like you or worse, turn their life around, so never give up on you, you're worth so much more.

Give your body a chance to heal by creating The Perfect Day... don't give in, let self-love win.

There is something terribly wrong with health care today. Take a look at the statistics or better still take a long look at your family and friends with an open mind and ask yourself, is today's normal. natural.

And to make my point that we have lost our logical mind, each year approximately 600,000 hysterectomies are performed in the United States, a little more than one uterus for every minute of the year.

100,000 men had prostate surgery last year in America and for why, because God created a faulty product? I think not.

Most people are not looking at the obvious. I believe that most diseases and yes cancers get their foothold from a poorly managed large intestine, which the medical system ignores and has no problem attacking more than any other organ in the human body.

What's up with this?

Mankind is not kind and as far as I'm concerned, cannot be trusted. Please read, 'I Am Woman, The Domino Effect of Unhealthy Living and The Medical Mafia in the Doc of Detox Library and discover what should come natural.

I think that we all can agree that putting untested medical devices on the market has proven that we are insane and as far as I'm concerned is a blatant attack against humanity.

Do you know that 98% of all the new innovative medical devices are untested?

To help you understand how the medical device industry has free access to everyone for over the last 10 years just know that 70 million Americans have been implanted with foreign objects, otherwise untested medical devices.

But to add even more fuel to this already raging fire, only 3 to 4 percent of all the complications from these medical devices are ever reported.

The rest are hidden from the public. Medical companies paid doctors more than 2 billion dollars in 2016 to keep them trustworthy.

Medicine is all about the 'business of health'... not about 'being in the health and wellness business'.

Welcome to the harvest, welcome to the latest greatest lifesaving, inhuman, untested medical device.

Just remember this, a scientific breakthrough in most cases, is not a health breakthrough.

And also know, that the biggest health breakthrough is learning to love 'you'... through and through; you are precious.

Here are some safety precautions for human beings entering the surgical device arena.

Research any device that will be used on you or put into your body. New is not necessarily better.

Get a second opinion for any risky or expensive procedure. Ask your surgeon how many procedures he or she has performed.

Have a friend or family member be your advocate while you're in the hospital.

To see if your doctor has been paid by a medical device company go to: openpaymentsdata.cms.gov.
